1. Results of the Audit Process

1.1 Scope and purpose of audit engagement

We have completed our audit of the School's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2020 and issued our audit opinion. Based on our audit procedures we can confirm the annual financial statements presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the School as at 31 December 2020 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended.

Obtaining reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement, involved us making an assessment of the risk of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and then applying audit procedures, using our professional judgment, to mitigate that risk. While we considered internal control relevant to the preparation of your annual financial statements, our audit procedures mainly comprised substantive tests (i.e. transactional and confirmation type testing).

Our audit procedures are designed primarily for the purpose of expressing an opinion on your annual financial statements. We do not examine every transaction, due to the scope of the audit engagement; there is an unavoidable risk that some misstatements or errors may remain undiscovered. Our report does not include all possible improvements to your internal controls, which a more extensive review might satisfy.

1.2 Responsibilities of the Trustees

The Trustees are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements which fairly reflect the financial position of the School as at 31 December 2020 and the financial performance for the year ended on that date.

To meet this objective, the Trustees are ultimately responsible for the maintenance of proper accounting records and an adequate system of internal controls to minimise the risk of material financial statement misstatement.

1.3 Independence statement

Members of the Audit Team and Partners of Crowe have confirmed their independence from the School for the year ended 31 December 2020.

1.4 Materiality

Materiality is defined as the magnitude of omission or misstatement individually, or in aggregate that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person would have been changed or influenced by such omissions or misstatement. It is a matter of professional judgment and is influenced by quantitative and qualitative factors.

1.5 Outcomes from audit of key performance report risk areas

Key audit and accounting issues arising during the year relate to those areas of audit focus as listed below:

Audit Risk	Audit Response
Fraud in revenue recognition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Locally raised funds are a specific audit risk identified by the Office of the Auditor General. This revenue stream is susceptible to fraud risks over completeness of revenue. There are specific accounting judgements in the application of the School's accounting policies for key revenue streams. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We verified a sample of revenue transactions from underlying documents to the general ledger and bank statements. We analytically reviewed revenue categories against budget and prior year. We compared an external confirmation of government grants paid to the School to the revenue recorded in the School's financial statements. We prepared an independent expectation of the School's revenue for the year and compared against actual revenue recorded. Explanations were sought for differences in excess of our tolerable variance.
Management override of controls <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The risk of management overriding controls exists in all entities and is a mandatory significant risk to be addressed by the auditor. Material misstatement of financial statements due to fraud often involve the manipulation of the financial reporting process by recording inappropriate or unauthorised journal entries, bias in accounting estimates and the existence of significant transactions outside the normal course of business. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professional scepticism was maintained while undertaking audit procedures on subjective balances in the School's financial statements, including the provision for cyclical maintenance. Journals posted into the general ledger were selected on a sample basis and traced back to supporting documents to verify that they were appropriate.
Cyclical Maintenance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The cyclical maintenance provision does not contain all obligations of the school and does not reflect management's best estimate. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We reviewed the calculation of the School's provision for cyclical maintenance and it's alignment with the School's 10YPP.

1.6 Observations and recommendations arising from the audit

We highlight the following matters for the attention of the Trustees together with recommendations for management to consider, to further strengthen the internal control environment of the School.

1.6.1 Good Administration/Accounting System

Observation

We take this opportunity to comment on the efficient and well-controlled nature of your team’s administration and accounting function. This is a credit to the people involved as well as the disciplines put in place by your Board. As your auditors, we appreciate your openness to external advice and congratulate your school for your good efforts in ensuring the efficient and effective operation of this important part of your school.

Our uncorrected and corrected audit differences are included in Section 3 of this report for the consideration of the Board.

1.7 Update on prior year observations and recommendations

In our audit for the 31 December 2019, we identified a number of matters for the attention of the Trustees together with recommendations for management to consider. We consider the following matters to have been sufficiently addressed.

Prior Year Recommendation	Current Year Observation
Xero User 2019 Recommendation While reviewing the Xero user list, Crowe noted that Judi Devine had two xero user access. One under Judi Devine with email admin@salford.school.nz which was last logged in 6 months ago, second is Judi Devine – user 2 with email finance@salford.school.nz. Both this access has ability to change bank account details and also both this user access has generic email address. After discussion with the principal she had this sorted and with the suggestion from Solution and service, an email account with Judi’s name was created. Crowe has sighted this change online which is correct. We applaud on the school’s management’s efficiency in fixing the matter.	This matter was solved before the completion of 2019 audit.

1.8 Confidentiality
