

Kia Ora te whanau, No mai hiri mai,

Good afternoon Salford Community,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their support during a very busy term.

The new classes have settled and staff and students were able to both do some learning before the 3-Way Learning Conference meetings which is always an exciting time for the school community. The term has been especially busy, due to that fact that it was only 9 weeks and so much had to be fitted into it; athletics, summer after school sports, the Year 6 Camp and much more filled out big learning days.

Next Term starts for students, on TUESDAY 21 APRIL following a Teacher Only Day on Monday the 20th.

We have a very busy term with ANZAC Day falling in the first weekend and swimming commencing on Wednesday June 3 and Thursday June 4., and then for the rest of the term it will be every Wednesday and Thursday. We have the school X-Country on Tuesday 26th of May, Phoenix Zone (9 June) and Southland X-Country (19 June). Reports will be issued on Friday 26 June.

We will have a SPECIAL ANZAC OBSERVANCE in place of Assembly on Friday April 24th, outside by the flag pole if fine or in the hall if wet. The observance will commence at 2.15pm.

PLEASE do come forward and help . Pop into the Office, or send an email to admin@salford.school.nz

Gallipoli 1915—2015—100 yrs

More than 11,000 ANZACS died on the Gallipoli Peninsula, despite only being there for 8 months.

“Lest We Forget” is a phrase popularised in 1897 by Rudyard Kipling, which was adopted as the final line of the Recitation along with the “Ode Of Remembrance”, taken from Laurence Binyon’s

ANZAC was originally named the Australasian Army Corps. However protests from New Zealand led to the adoption of Australian and New Zealand Army Corps. Administration clerks found the title too long and adopted the abbreviation of ANZAC.
